

REZOLUTION

CSO Marshal Langstrom

Marshal Langstrom has had a long and illustrious career with the CSO. Born in 2120 amid the ruins of Seattle, like many others Langstrom was destined for a life of crime and given the survival rate, a very short one. He had to learn the hard way how to be street smart and how to survive. By the time he was twenty, he realised he wanted more than just survival on the streets. While escaping from a gang of narcotic dealers he had double-crossed, he stumbled into a CSO recruitment office. To avoid the heavily armed gang outside, he signed up in the belief that once the CSO had taken him out of the area he could run. He never did.

Langstrom took to the CSO like a Ronin to a lucrative contract and he soon found himself moving rapidly up through the ranks. At the age of 25, he became the youngest member of the CSO to achieve the status of Marshal. Heavily involved in numerous campaigns both across the world and in nearby off-world colonies, he was instrumental in the formation of the CSO Mechanized Infantry Unit and also the man called in to crush the Chicago riots in 2153. He has since become a legend that refuses to die.

Although offered a seat on the board of Unipol many times throughout his career, Langstrom has always refused, preferring to remain out in the field. In 2172, he was diagnosed with a rare form of cancer, but as yet has not slowed down or taken a back seat. If the CSO are involved in a prominent campaign or major investigation, you will find Marshal Langstrom at the heart of it.
